Dear Jerome,

On behalf of the faculty, students and administration of Concordia College-New York, I am pleased to offer you a place in the class for the 2018-2019 academic year. Congratulations!

Our offer of admission is based upon many criteria, including the individual gifts that you bring to the Concordia community. Equally important, however, is our commitment to your academic, personal and spiritual growth. Included with this letter is a list of instructions about what to do now that you have been accepted. There is an Application Form I-20 that you will need in order to apply for your student visa, a calendar of the coming academic year and medical forms. The acceptance instructions include more information about these forms. All students at Concordia complete The Concordia Distinctive, an integrated core of liberal arts courses along with designated support courses for their intended program of study.

In order to secure your place in the Spring 2019 class, you need to return the enclosed Tuition Deposit Form and a $500 tuition deposit no later than December 1, 2018. If you are admitted after December 1st you will have two weeks to submit your $500 deposit. The deposit is non-refundable but will be credited to your school account. You can pay your deposit by check, money order or online at www.concordia-nv.edu/deposit. After you deposit, you will receive communication about orientation, registration, housing (if applicable) and student experience in general.

Your precise class status will be determined upon final evaluation of your college work by our Registrar. If you are currently enrolled in courses at another institution, please be sure to arrange for the prompt forwarding of your final collegiate transcript to the Concordia College Office of Admission.

Again, congratulations on your admission. We look forward to seeing you join the Concordia College community to take advantage of a world of exciting opportunities.

Respectfully,

Dear Jereen Jeba John Asir

Congratulations on your acceptance to St. Clair College.

We are pleased to provide you with your Letter of Acceptance and other important information that will assist you when planning for your arrival in Canada and your studies at St. Clair College.

How to Apply for Your Study Permit

This letter of acceptance will serve as your official documentation when applying for your study permit through Citizenship and Immigration Canada (www.cic.gc.ca). Please visit the Government of Canada - Citizenship and Immigration Canada website for more information on Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada (IRCC) estimated study permit processing times for your country, available at: <http://www.cic.gc.ca/english/information/times/temp/students.asp>.

Note: please submit a complete application to the IRCC with all requested details and allow for sufficient time for study permit application processing based on your country of citizenship.

Next Steps

Once you have received notification of your study permit/visa approval, please scan and email a copy of your approval letter from the Canadian Government (i.e., IRCC) to our office at international@stclaircollege.ca and upload to your application available through the International Application Portal.

Arriving in Canada

Once your study permit has been approved it's time to start planning your arrival in Canada! There are three important items you must consider before leaving your home country to come to St. Clair College:

1. Housing - please select the following link <http://www.stclaircollege.ca/international/accommodations.html> for the various options available to you.
2. Airport transfer - please select the following link <http://www.stclaircollege.ca/international/arrival-information.html> for more information.
3. Health insurance - our mandatory health insurance will cover you from the first day of class. Be sure you have your own coverage until that date.

Please note that it is up to you to make and finalize your own housing and airport pick-up arrangements. If you require additional assistance, please contact the International Education Office at international@stclaircollege.ca

We look forward to welcoming you to Canada and St. Clair College.

Best wishes,
